

JUDGE J. W. ALCOHN

PASSES AWAY SUNDAY

Distinguished Citizen And Lawyer
Of Stanford Dies Here After
Short Illness

Hon. J. W. Alcorn, whose serious illness has been noted in previous issues of this paper, passed in his reward at 1:30 Sunday afternoon, and Stanford has lost its most prominent citizen and one who was loved and respected by all who knew him. The end was so calm and peaceful that the surrounding watchers by his bedside hardly knew when it came. On account of his advanced years great apprehension as to the outcome was felt from the first, and nothing was left undone that could be accomplished by scientific nursing and the best medical skill.

James Walker Alcorn was born in the Peyton's Well section of Lincoln county July, 1838, and Lincoln county owes much to the fact that the whole of his useful life was spent within its bounds. Of Virginia ancestry, he was the son of Alfred Alcorn and Mary Walker and on both sides was connected with some of the most prominent families of the State.

After receiving his education at Centre College, which institution a few years since conferred upon him the degree of LL. D., he began the study of law at Stanford when 21 years of age in the office of his distinguished kinsman, the late Col. T. P. Hill, and was licensed in November, 1858. He evinced such proficiency in his chosen profession that he was taken into partnership by his preceptor and about the same time appointed Master Commissioner of the Lincoln County Circuit Court.

In September, 1862, Mr. Alcorn then in the prime of manhood, joined the Confederate army and was a member of the famous cavalry commanded by the gallant John H. Morgan. He was with this daring leader in all of his famous raids until he was captured in Ohio on that most daring of all of Morgan's raids. After this he was confined for some time in Camp Chase, a military prison. He was a brave soldier and attained the rank of adjutant, and he also acted as assistant adjutant general.

When the cause for which he fought was lost, Mr. Alcorn resumed the practice of law in Stanford in partnership with Col. Hill and this was the leading firm in this section until September, 1887, when it was dissolved.

As a lawyer it may be truly said of the deceased that he was the equal of the very best. Having the highest order of intellect, an analytical mind, unerring judgment, fine discrimination between right and wrong, untiring energy, he took high rank in his profession from the first and for nearly four decades he has been recognized as one of the ablest lawyers in the State. His ability in the law was not confined to his knowledge of it for he was a skillful and successful practitioner. His merit has always been recognized and during the whole of his career he has had a large practice.

For many years he has been one of the District Attorneys of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company and was held in the highest esteem by the officials of that great corporation. He has also been the legal representative of nearly all the corporations of this county. His energy knew no bounds. It was said of him that he could do the work of three men, which is hardly an exaggeration.

Judge Alcorn was possessed of many noble traits of character, conspicuous among many which was his kindness. He was ever ready to aid the poor with his means or with his service. There was never a better friend to the young lawyer and he was never too busy or tired to render him the needed assistance.

As a citizen he took great pride in the progress of his county and town and was always one of the moving spirits in efforts toward improvements. Both county and town owe him no small debt of gratitude for the mileage of turnpikes, railroads, educational institutions and other valuable improvements.

On September 13, 1865, Judge Alcorn was married to Miss Sophia F. Kendrick, of Somerset, and is survived by her and five of seven children and also by one sister, Mrs. W. H. Higgins, of this place. The children are Mrs. J. N. Saunders, Misses Kate, Pattie and Sophia Alcorn, and Kendrick, who has been his father's law partner for the past several years.

The heartfelt sorrow of the whole community goes out in sympathy to the crushed ones left behind. Oh, how it may be truly said "well done" for he was a successful man, a model citizen, a kind neighbor, an affectionate and indulgent husband and father and a consistent Christian, being a member of the Stanford Presbyterian church. The funeral services will take place at his residence on Danville street at four o'clock this afternoon and the interment will be in the Buffalo Springs cemetery.

Special Train Brings Many to Funeral

One of the largest crowds which has attended a funeral in Stanford in several years was here Sunday afternoon to pay the last tribute of respect and esteem to the memory of Judge Alcorn. The L. & N. railroad, of which he was an important official for many years, ran a special train from Pineville to bring all of his friends who desired to attend the funeral from that part of the State. C. W. Metcalfe, of Pineville, headed the big delegation, which was composed of the following:

From Mitchellboro—O. B. Hollingsworth, R. J. Johnson, J. E. Sampson, R. L. Maddox, K. J. Francis, M. H. Rother, G. A. Peyton, D. H. Perkins.

P. O. SALARY LOWERED

Stanford One Of Two Offices In State To Be Decreased July 1

Fifty-seven postmasters in Kentucky will get their salaries raised the first of July on account of their increased business of their offices. The salaries of two offices are lowered, and as luck will have it, Stanford is one of the two—which, of course, is not the most welcome news in the world to Stanford's popular new postmistress, Miss Mary Bruce. The revenues of the local office fluctuate considerably each year, however, and it is said to be very probable that the office will go back to the former salary next year. The increases and decreases are worked out on the amount of revenue of each post-office. The salaries of postmasters at the following offices are to be increased $100 per year, the new salaries to be as follows: Ashland, $2,800; Beaver Dam, $1,400; Benton, $1,400; Bevan, $1,900; Carlisle, $1,900; Carrollton, $1,840; Cave City, $1,200; Columbia, $1,400; Corydon, $1,100; Cynthiana, $2,400; Danville, $2,500; Eldersville, $1,400; Elkhorn, $1,500; Flemingsburg, $1,700; Glasgow, $2,300; Grayson, $1,200; Greencamp, $1,300; Greenville, $1,700; Harrodsburg, $1,500; Harrodsburg, $2,400; Hartford, $1,100; Haysville, $1,200; Hickman, $2,000; Hopkinsville, $2,800; Jenkins, $1,700; Keok, $1,100; Lexington, $3,500; Lexington, $1,200; Madison, $1,200; Millersburg, $1,500; Monticello, $1,400; Morehead, $1,400; Mt. Vernon, $1,100; Murray, $1,800; Nicholasville, $1,200; Owensboro, $1,200; Prestonsburg, $1,300; Richmond, $2,500; Scottsville, $1,500; Seelye, $1,200; Shelbyville, $2,400; Smiths Grove, $1,800; Smirgus, $1,000; Warsaw, $1,200; Williamsburg, $1,800; Williams-town, $1,200; Winchester, $2,000.

Those increased $200 annually are: Brooksville, $1,300; Catlettsburg, $2,400; Harlan, $1,500; Jackson, $1,700; Pineville, $1,900; Wilmore, $1,400.

The salary at Hazard is raised from $1,200 to $1,500, while those at Dixon and Stanford are decreased $100 each. The new offices at Kintawa, Morgantown, Owensville and Russell have been created during the year, and Van Lear has been dropped from presidential to fourth class.

Dr. Willis Says Beckham's a Winner
A dispatch from Winchester to the city papers Saturday said, Dr. R. L. Willis, of Lexington and Crab Orchard, a prominent physician, who has been visiting relatives in this county, is convinced, after traveling extensively over the state, that Mr. Beckham will be the winner in the Senatorial race by a vote equal to that of Gov. McCreary and Mr. Stanley. Dr. Willis has been making some political observations to satisfy his own mind, and has come to the conclusion that the election will be a landslide for Mr. Beckham. In Lincoln county where he has been residing, he said Mr. Beckham would get twice as many votes as his opponents. He says he has found Beckham supporters by the hundred in every place he has visited, and declares the trend of opinion is undoubtedly in favor of Mr. Beckham.

NELSON'S NARROW ESCAPE

Danville Electrician Has Close Call With Auto In The West End

Kidd's Store, June 20
Every mention of a near tragedy near Irvine Allen's in our south suburb last Thursday produces a shudder in realization of escape from apparently the inevitable. Mr. Edd Nelson, of Danville, was crawling into harbor with his disabled 2,000 pound touring car when occasion arose for an adjustment of the machine. Neglecting to throw out of gear the machine was unexpectedly started and no escape possible. Realizing his horrible plight Mr. Nelson, an athlete, adjusted his body with reference to protection of his head and with Samsonian strength heaved the machine to elevation which assured its transit with no greater injury than a crushed ankle and slightly bruised and abraded shoulder and back. The machine chanced to be headed for a near telephone pole and brought up against it without damage. Being alone Mr. Nelson had no alternative but to await rescue which arrived soon and deposited him here to await a car immediately ordered from Danville. Only extraordinary presence of mind and Spartan determination in defiance of calamity won the day.

Impromptu here was burgled lately. Only best floor, bacon and tinned ware, missed. Thieves trailed rapidly, but did not turn. The marks indicated a dirty old sealed rear wall to gable window and transferred loot through a ground-floor window to a concholate. Bean traps may cut some ice at next foray.

Prayers for rains are louder and longer than were those of two months ago for less rain and there is no sign more encouraging that a local season is in store. It is said to be a local season is in store. It is said to be a local season is in store.

Prayers of clouds which delayed neighbors have not always even shed a few tears on our distressed condition. They do say a certain saintly soul has been sorely shocked by the profanation of the Sabbath by neighbors, who improved a few morning hours by setting tobacco before the season dried out and will seek a soothing indictment by next grand jury. Surely the sun do move.

BURGULARS MAKE THREE CALLS

Visit R. M. Newland and W. S. Embury Friday Night, and Get $2.50

Burglars paid another pleasant little call to Stanford last Friday night when a couple of residences on Logan avenue were visited and the sum of $2.50 realized from the raids. The homes of W. S. Embury and R. M. Newland were selected by the gentlemen of burglarious tendencies as probably the most profitable to enter. Friday night was one of those hot ones, and Mr. Newland retired and left of his front door open, through which entrance was effected. The intruder got $2.50 out of his trousers' pockets and then left without touching anything else, so far as known. At Embury's almost next door, entrance was forced through the screen door in the rear. The burglars then visited the bedroom in which Mr. and Mrs. Embury were peacefully sleeping and picking up Mr. Embury's trousers off a chair near the bed, carried them to the kitchen and went through them but failed to secure anything of value. Mr. Embury regrets very much that he did not awaken during the midnight visitation as he would undoubtedly have made it much warmer for the caller for a while as he sleeps with a Colt's automatic very handy.

On Sunday night, the home of C. H. Carter, in the same neighborhood, was entered, and the burglar was identified as a short, stocky negro, by Robert Carter, who saw him running toward the railroad after he had been frightened out of the house. Young Mr. Carter had not been asleep when he heard some one moving about the hall, and he got up when he heard his sister get up. He heard a man run through the hall to a rear door, and ran for a pistol which was in his parents' room. By the time he had secured it, the burglar was well out of range, but Mr. Carter easily saw that he was a negro and short and stocky in build.

There is said to have been quite a cleaning up of old pistols and firearms since the epidemic of burglaries, has become so pronounced, and somebody's going to get his head shot off one of these fine nights, if this thing keeps up.

Ben Bryan Breaks Four Ribs
Ben Bryan, the popular and well-known farmer and contractor, out on the Danville pike, was seriously injured when a piece of scaffolding gave away with him Saturday while he was engaged in some work at the home of C. H. Tate on West Main street. Mr. Bryan has been in charge of the construction work in the addition of several rooms and a sleeping porch to Mr. Tate's residence. When the scaffolding gave way with him, he fell across a piece of lumber and four ribs on his right side were cracked, or crushed in. The injury is a very painful one, indeed, and there is said to be some apprehension lest he may have sustained internal injuries. He was removed to his home on the Danville pike and every attention is being given him.

Excursion to Asheville
The first excursion of the year to Asheville, North Carolina, and other points in the "Land of the Sky" will be operated over the Queen & Crescent route next Wednesday. The round trip from Danville will be only $9.00. Tickets will be sold for $12.50 which are good for six months.

SAD FIRE IN BOYLE

Over Hundred Acres of Wheat And Large House Are Destroyed

One of the most disastrous fires in several months visited Boyle county Sunday afternoon when seventy acres of wheat belonging to Mr. Mitchell Taylor and forty acres wheat belonging to Mr. Epperson were destroyed, along with a lot of other property, says Monday's Danville Advocate. It is said that the fire started near the railroad and spread rapidly toward the east being fanned by a brisk wind. Aside from the wheat, a two-story frame residence of eight rooms and chicken house on the farm of Mitchell Taylor were reduced to ashes. In one of the barns there were one hundred bushels of corn, farming implements and other things. Four or five hundred panels of fence were burned and practically all the furniture belonging to Mr. Sam Wheeler, who lived in the house which was destroyed. There was no insurance on any of the property. A lot of meadow was also burned. Hundreds of people hurried to the scene of the blaze and helped to fight it. It is stated that the fire started from sparks from an engine on the railroad, although the Advocate has not talked to any one who saw the fire when it originated. It is reported however, that a number of prominent citizens saw the fire when it first began and that it spread so rapidly that it could not be checked until it had run its mad course. Even large shade trees at the residence for many years occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George Burke were burned to the ground. A lot of chickens belonging to Mr. Sam Wheeler found place of safety in a grass plot that did not burn.

'Beckham Speaks at Mt. Sterling'
Mt. Sterling, Ky., June 27.—One of the largest crowds that has attended a political speaking here in some time gathered to hear Gov. Beckham Saturday present his claims for the Senatorial nomination.

Gov. Beckham is very popular in this county and prior to the address a number of voters called on him at the hotel to assure him of their support and co-operation in his race.

The former Governor was introduced by Judge E. W. Seuff, who at one time presided over the Police Court, and who is now serving his second term as County Attorney of Montgomery. Judge Seuff has heretofore been a supporter of Gov. McCreary, but in the present race has been one of Gov. Beckham's strongest supporters.

In the course of his introductory address, Judge Seuff said:

"It is my distinguished privilege, and I am deeply sensible of the honor, to present to you today the man whom the Democrats of Kentucky, in a preferential primary some six years ago, selected as their standard-bearer for United States Senator."

"Under the then existing law, in order for that selection to be binding, it required the endorsement of the Legislature, and as you will recall, it being a matter of current history, because that nominee would not sacrifice his convictions and compromise with dishonor, the will of the people was thwarted, and by political corruption our nominee defeated."

"Fortunately, the law has since been changed, so that the people can now, for the first time, by a direct vote, elect the man they desire."

"Both as an official and as a citizen, he has boldly stood for cleanliness in politics, for honesty, efficiency and business-like methods in the administration of public affairs, and in every day life for those things that best make for peace, happiness and prosperity. It is therefore with great pleasure that I introduce to you the man whom I believe will, and by reason of his high character and superior qualifications, ought to be the next United States Senator from Kentucky, the Hon. J. C. W. Beckham."

Villa Fools the World
Zacatecas, Mexico, June 25.—One hundred and eighteen Mexican Federal army officers of various grades were marched out of their prison inclosure yesterday under a heavy guard of Constitutional troops, taken to the plains east of the city for the customary executions and then were astonished to hear from the lips of General Pancho Villa that their lives were spared. The old Aztec law of Mexico was overturned. An invariable custom was cast aside. General Villa sought to prove to the world in an effective though dramatic way that he is becoming civilized. The effect on the rigid line of Federal officers was instantaneous. Some wept with relief. Some turned their faces in their hands. Some gazed in an apparent daze at the firm squad standing with rifles at rest. Even the axel soldiers were unprepared for Villa's act. The Federal officers had heard of Villa as a huge savage with a blood lust. The Constitutionalists had expected him to carry out the custom of Mexican warfare.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

The degree team of Lancaster Royal Arch chapter No. 36 will confer the Royal Arch on nine Masons at Liberty Friday evening.

Wesley Embury, who has a nice position in the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Hamilton, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. J. T. Embury, here.

County Attorney W. S. Burch has been confined to his room for about a week with a severe attack of gall stones. His many friends will be glad to know that he is improving rapidly now.

The I. J. is mighty proud of the large number of news letters that appeared from its country correspondents in the last issue. Keep up the good work and let us have a letter once a week from all parts of this and adjoining counties.

Robert H. Coffey returned to his headquarters at Youngstown, O., on Sunday after a couple of weeks' vacation spent here with his parents, Col. and Mrs. Joseph Coffey. Mr. Coffey is one of the best men on the road of the Garlock Packing Company.

A program for a big Fifth Sunday meeting to be held at the Hustonville Baptist church in August, is being arranged here today by a committee of prominent ministers of this district. They are Dr. M. D. Early, of Stanford, Rev. Albert Maddox, of Hustonville and Rev. J. L. Atkins, of Perryville.

Mrs. Mary McBee and son, Raymond, of Beech Grove, Ind., are back on a visit to relatives and friends here where they lived for a number of years. Ray formerly worked in the I. J. office and the many friends he made while here, will be glad to know that he has "made good" in his new home. He is now employed by the Big Four railroad in an important capacity.

News comes from Cedar Creek that Col. L. P. Chandler, the silver tongued orator, is still quite ill with heart trouble and has not shown the improvement that his host of friends could wish. Col. Chandler is suffering from chronic heart trouble. Fears are entertained that he will not be up in time for the Broadhead fair, of which he has been Ringmaster for the last 30 or 40 years, and of which he is one of the fixtures. A Broadhead, of which he has a splendid collection, is a Broadhead fair—that's all there is to it.

E. M. Gatliff, of Williamsburg, was in Stanford last week on an automobile trip through the bluegrass with his sister, Miss Una Gatliff and her guest, Miss Beverly Davidson, of Augusta, Ga., and T. E. Mahan, of Williamsburg. Mr. Mahan was recently graduated from State University. This is Miss Davidson's first trip through the bluegrass and all points of interest will be visited by the party. They left Lexington and Louisville, but will return the latter part of the week and will spend a week at Cumberland Falls.

One of the handsomest homes in Stanford will soon be erected on the large lot where T. A. Rice recently bought from Dr. D. E. Proctor, south of his home on Danville avenue. Mr. Rice has arranged with Contractor Will Stone for the erection of a two story brick residence with all modern improvements. This home will be quite an addition to the architecture of Stanford when completed. Mr. and Mrs. Rice will move in from their farm on the Danville pike, three miles northwest of Stanford, and make their home in town when their new residence is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Menefee got in from Knoxville, Tenn., Monday and are with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Menefee, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. George G. Menefee, the bride and groom, came in a day earlier, and Mrs. George F. Covan, of Spokane, Wash., has been here a short time with her parents also. It is very seldom that one of the sons or daughters of this popular couple come home, without several brothers or sisters showing up. The affection that each member of this Stanford family has for the others is something beautiful to behold, and is especially noticeable in these days when family ties are so often forgotten or neglected after the sons and daughters begin to leave the parental roof tree.

Rockcastle Boy in Oklahoma
A dispatch from Oklahoma City to the C. J. Sunday had this note of interest: Dr. R. H. Miller, of Mt. ### A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight.

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your use and a large book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper. No. 125

Mrs. Belle Hawkins, of Eminence, Ky., was a victim of stomach disorders. She took a great deal of treatment and medical attention.

At last she tried Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and got real results. In a letter telling of her experience she said:

"I have taken all of the medicines I ordered of you and will say it has done more good than all the doctors and medicines I ever tried. I don't really think I am well. I never felt better in my life. If I ever should need any medicine I know where to get it."

Booming Ireland for State Race
(From Anderson County Record.)
The friends of Ireland county, Ireland, of Stanford, are urging him to enter the race for State Superintendent of Schools. He was in Lawrenceburg this week and stated that he had his ear to the ground and was almost a certain entry. There is hardly a more popular or better known educator in the State and should he get into the fight would be an awful hard man to beat. For a number of years he was principal of the City High School at Stanford and made a most enviable record. He is now traveling for the American Book Company. He is eminently qualified for the position and should be elected the people can rest assured that he will look after their interests diligently.
